consisting of every delicacy which could possibly be desired by the most wealthy family in Mt. Sterling, consisting of a fine, fat turkey, cranberries, celery, oysters, plum pudding and in fact everything which goes to make up a Thanksgiving dinner "fit for a king". The menu is being gotten up at present and will appear in the SENTINEL-DEMOCRAT and other local papers next week. The person holding the lucky number MUST BE IN THE HOUSE when the drawing takes place immediately after the first show on Wednesday night, November 27th. Each Lady Attending on this Night will be Presented With A

CORRESPONDENCE.

PLUM LICK.

(By James Kendall.)

Quite a number of farmers from this section attended court at Mt. Sterling Monday.

J. Walter Rice sold 50 bbls. of corn to Henry Gaitskill at $2.50 per barrel in the field.

Plum Lick is very much indebted to William M. Martin, the noted orator and lecturer of world, and W. M. Kendall, of Carlisle, who addressed the people on the following subjects: "Modern Child Life," "Why so Many Children are Abnormal," "The Splendor of the Human Body, How to Make it Perfect," "Japan, Her Attitude Toward the United States," "The Uplifting of Humanity" and the interests of the farmers generally. Those who had the opportunity and were so unfortunate as to miss it certainly missed the treat of their lives.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baity, of near North Middletown, gave one of the nicest social hops of the season last Thursday evening. Twenty-five girls and as many more boys were present and began the first set with eighteen couples on the floor. Refreshments were served at midnight. The string band was excellent, with Prof. Jake Henry, of Lexington, as leader. The dancing ceased at four o'clock Friday morning, and the jolly crowd departed in all directions, only wishing the night could have been a few hours longer.

The box supper given at Plum Lick schoolhouse Saturday night was quite a success. Auctioneer Cravens and Robert Montjoy, of Mt. Sterling, were present and made it quite interesting. The bidding was quite lively and boxes sold high. Proceeds will go for the benefit of another library and the Orphans Home.

STOOPS.

(By B. M. Goodan.)

Late sown wheat is making a poor show.

Many tobacco men have had to cease stripping on account of the tobacco drying out in the bulk.

Mrs. Harrison Conn has been very ill the past few days.

John Smathers, who has been at Indianapolis for the past three weeks, has returned home.

Seems like the "postmaster question" throughout the United States is going to overshadow the tariff question.

Mrs. Albert Hudson, who has been dangerously ill with typhoid pneumonia, has begun to steadily improve.

Roy Byrd is building a tenant house on his farm.

Miss Cordia Steele bought from W. T. Baker, of Flat Creek, a harness horse for $125.

Miss Lela D. and Bryan Scott will return this week to their home in South Dakota.

Our town seems to be bustling with business activity just now. We have two stores furnishing merchandise to a large territory, a mill running six days out of the week, a blacksmith shop crowded with work and numerous other enterprises that are useless to mention.

Sam Piersall sold a fat cow to Sid Hart for $60.

Stanley Trimble sold about 200 bbls. of corn to Josh Owings for $2.75 per barrel.

James W. and Clarence White and Wm. Highland have rented the land, consisting of about 500 acres, from Mrs. Elizabeth Ragan for the ensuing year.

Clell Goodan came down from Owingsville Sunday to visit relatives.

Most everybody appears to have gone "turkey wild" this time.

Harve Satterfield and son, Will, of Preston, visited the family of Tom Satterfield Saturday and Sunday.

Roy McClain, of Bourbon county, came Sunday to visit relatives.

Rev. Paxton, of the Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary, preached at Springfield Sunday.

Miss Mollie Thomas has returned from a visit to relatives at Farmers.

Frank Byrd is here from Cincinnati.
